JOSIAH TURNER, Jr., EDITOR.

[From the Courier-Journal.]

A RADICAL ORGAN ON GEN. GRANT.

If there is in the United States a Radical organ which, in respect to radicalism, has been without variableness or the shadow of turning, such an organ is the veteran New York Commercial Advertiser. Well, the sturdy old Commercial gives its readers the following, under the head of "THE SPOILED CHILD:"

Some of the extreme party organs have taken to scolding the Sun because of its bold, blunt manner of talking to General Grant. It would be much better for General Grant and the Republican party if some of these cringing, time serving, spoils-seeking, office-expecting champions of the President would follow the example of the Sun, and tell him to his face that he has done nothing but blunder since he entered the White House. These termagant organs know it, but lack the courage to speak their mind, for fear of losing the chance of being made postmaster or tide-waiter.—General Grant has been acting like a spoiled child, and a gentle application of birch would be likely to have a powerful effect upon him. We advise the special friends of the General, who are acting very much as superannuated grandmas and grandpapas do with a pet grandchild, to remember the ancient adage, "Spare the rod and spoil the child." Let them act on this advice and the Republican party will be more certain to exhibit vitality in the next election.—We speak thus plainly because we think the occasion demands it—even at the risk of being assailed as a Conservative, playing into the hands of the Democracy. A little wholesome truth-telling applied to President Grant, we repeat, will be advantageous to him and the party.

There's plain, bold talk from a Radical pen for Radical eyes. All of the honorable, manly and independent of the Radical editors, all of them who have patriotism, self respect, and pride of intellect or of character, scorn to speak of Grant and his administration as he and it were at first spoken of by his whole party. It is only "the cringing, time-serving, spoils seeking, office expecting" partisan editors, as the Commercial scornfully but justly calls them, that continue their absurd and contemptible adulation of him. It is true that, only by his being the candidate of the Radicals in November, were they saved from defeat, but they are under no obligation to him on that account, and he is under none to them for electing him, inasmuch as it would have been far better for them to be beaten than to elect him, and incomparably better for him to remain General-in chief than to be elected by them. He and they were alike curses to each other.

The New York Commercial and the New York Sun, both powerful Radical organs, proclaim to Grant and to the nation that "he has done nothing but blunder since he entered the White House," and this is true. He blundered in his first act, he blundered in his last, and he blundered in all his intermediate ones. He lacks knowledge deplorably, and he has not done a hundredth part so well as he knew. He has committed wrongs ignorantly, and he has committed them perversely. He cannot be said to have a confusion of ideas, but he has a confusion of whims, caprices, freaks, follies, spites and malignities.

The Commercial calls Grant "a spoiled child" and talks of the propriety of administering the birch to him. Strange language for a leading Radical editor to have to employ in regard to a President of the United States in the first four months of his administration! We saw, many years ago, in an old comic almanac, a picture entitled "the spoiled child," representing an enormously fat old nurse sitting down upon a baby and squeezing its eyes from its head. The poor brat looked (if it can be said to have looked when its eyes were out) just as Grant will probably look when the broad and ponderous haunches of public opinion shall have fully settled down upon him.

THE CHINESE AS LABORERS.—Senator Wade, we see expresses himself a little astonished with the Chinese laborers on the Pacific, and particularly with the novelties of this labor. He states that he has visited many factories in various parts of the world, but has never seen any class of men as well adapted for the manufacture of woolen fabrics as the Chinese. We quote:

"Mr. Wade stated that he had visited many factories in various parts of the world, but had never seen any class of men as well adapted for the manufacture of woolen fabrics as the Chinese. They are patient, ingenious and reliable, and have their minds so little attracted by outside matters that they appear to be as mechanical in their movements as the machinery they attend. Both the Senator and his party thought the people of California were standing in their own light by rejecting this very useful labor. He thought other States in the Union, as soon as they understand the character of this intelligent, patient and industrious race, would expend millions of dollars in obtaining them. He expressed the remark that before ten years would pass the people of California would be framing laws to prevent the deportation of the Chinese, with far more zeal than they now sought to prevent them coming here. He stated that he did not consider the subject of their immigration to this State as of a local character, such as its Legislature could control. It was a national question, which, since the emancipation of the negroes and the growing desire to extend home manufactures, was of more importance than almost any other subject, because these men came here to perform labor almost exclusively, while the immigrants from other countries continued as laborers only long enough to obtain means to procure land or set up in business for themselves. He stated that he had appointed to meet the heads of the six Chinese companies in this city on Friday next, when he would endeavor to obtain certain information from them direct. He thought if California would adopt the national currency, and treat the Chinese liberally, in a few years it might become the greatest manufacturing State in the Union. Eastern capitalists, manufacturers and artisans preferred the currency of the Union to the cumbersome money of California. He thought California committed a great error in not accepting the national currency when first introduced—an opinion which was endorsed by all the company present, several of whom were prominent citizens of San Francisco."

The New York Commercial favors the Chinese immigration movement. The editor thinks it will not only help the Southern planters, but it will aid New York also in getting cheaper domestic servants:

"These active and capable Asiatics (we are told) will make a great change in the aspect of the labor question, and if they should come in rapidly and in large numbers they would make themselves felt at once. Hose-keepers hereafter will have faith that they will at once make a reliable arm of the domestic service."—Balto. Sun.

LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY,

Assets $10,462,531,75.

Amount of Income 6,227,071.

SURPLUS OVER LIABILITIES 2,675,999,48.

THE Ætna is the LEADING LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY in North Carolina.
Largest amount of Losses to Widows and Orphans!
The Largest Revenue to the States. And has by far the largest number when compared with 58 Companies reported officially by the Commissioners of New York and Massachusetts it will be seen that the Ætna ranks as one of the first Companies of the Continent. But two of the fifty-eight Companies permitted to do business in New York and Massachusetts had so large an income for the year 1868; but two had so large a number of Policies in force, but one among all those incorporated under the laws of the State of New York had so small a per centage of Expense to Income during the year 1868.

Its expenses are lower than most Companies', and consequently its ability to make and pay liberal dividends to the insured is greater than that of most other Companies. It is one of the great Companies of the land in Income, in Assets, in Number of Policies, in Amount Insured, in Solidity and Strength, in Soundness, Cheapness, Promptness, and Success. Persons contemplating this mode of investment in the future as in the past would do well to examine the claims of all and take a policy accordingly.

SPARKLING CATAWBA SPRINGS,
CATAWBA COUNTY, N. C.
THIS CELEBRATED WATERING PLACE, formerly called the North Carolina White Sulphur Springs, will be open for visitors on Tuesday, the first day of June next.
Being situated in the north-western part of this State, in a country remarkable for its beauty and healthfulness—these, together with the virtue of the waters, make it one of the most desirable watering places to be found.
The MINERAL WATERS of these Springs are the White and Blue Sulphur and Chalybeate or Iron, and they possess all the finest qualities of these waters, and are sovereign remedies for all diseases of the liver, bowels, stomach and kidneys, eruptions of the skin, scrofula, weakness, debility dyspepsia, rheumatism, &c.
The proprietor having spent a large amount in additional buildings and improvements generally, these Springs are now in a fine condition, rooms large and pleasant, and good cottages containing from two to six rooms each, well arranged for either large or small families.
Good TEN PIN ALLEYS, BILLIARD TABLES and other amusements.
FINE BATH HOUSES, for Pool, Plunge or Shower Bath, Sulphur Bath, Hot or Cold.
A GOOD BAND OF MUSIC
Will be at the Springs the entire season, and a good Physician permanently located for the benefit of invalids, who will have every attention.
Having secured the services of Mr. J. N. CARTER, of Virginia, who has had much experience and stands high as a Hotel keeper, visitors may rest assured that my table will be supplied with the best the market can afford, and everything done that will add to their pleasure and comfort.
The cars on the Western North Carolina Rail Road will leave Salisbury for Hickory Station, the Springs' depot, every morning, (Sundays excepted,) in connection with the North Carolina Railroad, avoiding stoppage or delay at Salisbury, and arrive at Hickory Station in time for breakfast, where good hacks will be in readiness to take passengers over a beautiful, well-shaded road to the Springs—a distance of six miles.

THE SENTINEL.

JOSIAH TURNER, Jr., EDITOR.

WEDNESDAY, JULY 7, 1869.

JUDICIAL CORRUPTION.

As yet we have but little signs of Judicial corruption in North Carolina. The Judiciary is always the last branch of the government to be corrupted. Judicial is sure to follow political corruption, in any and in all countries. Political corruption in North Carolina is more common than copies of the new Constitution, and you can find the former in many a house where you cannot find the latter.

The undertaking of the Editor of the Standard to put through the Chatham Railroad bill for $100,000, or a less sum, as proven before the Committe on Fraud and Corruption; the location of the Penitentiary on Deep River; the loan of money to members of the Legislature, are all evidences of legislative fraud and corruption, with which the people are familiar.

The evidences of political corruption in the Executive are as common as blackberries. Governor Holden's life is but one continuous example of political profligacy, falsehood and fraud, and the willingness of certain persons to fall in with him, in his plans and schemes, is conclusive evidence of their profligacy, falsehood and deceit.

Judge Rodman, Judge Reade, Victor Barringer, Judge Cantwell, Judge Settle and John Pool, have expressed more abhorrence of Holden and his political villainy, than any seven men of the State. When Judge Settle attended the first black and tan meeting held in this city, his friends apologized for him, saying "that he was there to put on the brakes, he was no Radical; he had influence with Holden and he had gone to the Convention to exercise it."

At a subsequent meeting, when Pool, Settle and Goodloe broke with Holden, and Pool wrote that unsigned address, Judge Settle was heard to denounce Holden, and say he should take the stump against him and his faction. Holden did not whip him in, but persuaded him in. These gentlemen, like the Lieutenant Governor, Caldwell, have been heard to apologize for having voted or co-operated with Holden.—When Governor Worth was elected over Holden, the Lieutenant Governor apologized in a public speech for having voted for the latter "Holden," he said, "was no choice of mine. I voted for him because I thought it was the best policy. Those who know me know that Holden was never one of my favorites, either as a politician or a man."

It is a common thing for many of the educated scallawags of the State to show their conservatism by declaring in conversation that they have "no confidence in Holden; they are not Radicals," &c. We believe there is no official in the State, except carpet-baggers, who have not expressed a want of confidence in Gov. Holden since his election. Holden, and their want of confidence in him, is the staple of their conversation when they find a Conservative or Democrat to talk with.

But enough of Legislative and Executive corruption. We were talking of Judicial corruption. We can mention some Judicial acts which smack of corruption; the political corruption of certain Judges is so strong and apparent, that it will require some effort on their part to free and divest themselves of it on the Bench. Judicial history well authenticated, teaches that Judges may do dishonorable acts as men, and yet administer justice between man and man as it is proper to be done. There is great want of confidence on the part of the people in the Judiciary of the State. When the Judges relied upon 80,000 ignorant negroes for their election and went round canvassing with such an unconverted and unconvicted thief as Judge Alden—the people lost confidence; they weakened in their faith.

We tell the people to hope on; even with Tourgee on the Bench they need not despair. So late even as the reign of Elizabeth, a Chief Justice of England was, in early life, a highway robber. John Popham was Solicitor General, and gave such satisfaction in conducting the Queen's business, that she recommended him to the House of Commons, and he was chosen Speaker.

Campbell, in his life of the Chief Justice, says, "that when Popham quit the road he gave a magnificent feast to his free booting friends, at which he had some fine old Gascony wine, and those who drank of it said it was captured at night on its way to the cellar of an Alderman of London." The facts rest upon undoubted authority that Popham would sally out at night and rob travellers of their money and valuables. Yet this same man became Chief Justice of England, and sat at the trial of Sir Walter Raleigh, and behaved much better than Lord Coke, who prosecuted, for Coke, in that trial, acted more like a brute than a man.

Except severity to prisioners, no reproach rests upon Popham as a Judge. He was called the "hanging Judge." A man charged with highway robbery is said to have stood little chance for acquittal before him. In this way, says Campbell, "he thought to make atonement to society for the evil example he had formerly set."

We don't know how our Judiciary can make atonement for the evil example they have set. They can't do it by denying the truth of the "solemn protest." If they can satisfy the people that they only meant to vindicate the dignity of the Court, and not to punish political opponents, it will go far to relieve them of the just opprobium under which they now lie.

THE IRREPRESSIBLE CUFFEE IN WASHINGTON.

The National Capital bids fair to eclipse all Yankeedom in devotion to the nigger. The Mayor of that many-scented village could not go to Gettysburg without taking a full blooded nigger with him as an escort for his daughter. There was a row in the Gettysburg hotel when the notorious Mayor Bowen marched into the dining room, followed by his daughter, leaning on the arm of an unsavory representative of midnight, who was formerly a waiter and dish washer. The ladies and gentlemen who were in the dining room rose and quitted it at once. The scene developed some strange inconsistencies on the part of radical apostles. One of them, Morton, of Indiana, positively refused to chaperon Bowen's nigger around the hotel, and some of the ladies who accompanied this radical Senator quitted the tables in disgust when the odors of Ethiopia were brought in close proximity to them. This nigger is a member of the City Council of Washington. Where this nigger mania is going to end it is hard to tell. Thank Heaven we are so far free from it in this city. But in the city of magnificent distances there will not be a chance for a white man in a short time. We may probably hear of a wedding in high life—Miss Bowen, daughter of the Mayor of Washington, led to the altar by Mr. George Augustus Price, formerly known as Pompey. What a comment on our boasted civilization.

We clip the above from the New York Evening Telegraph, as one of the signs of the drift of Radical doctrines in regard to negro equality. Similar paragraphs in the newspapers from all sections, and an appeal case now before the Supreme Court of our own State, are all indices of the natural result of Radical teachings on this subject. The white race in this country have a natural and unconquerable aversion to the idea of social equality with the negro, and so patent is this fact, that when the Radical party in the South took hold of the negroes to make them the tools and instruments of their own elevation to power, they sedulously and vehemently declared that they were as much opposed to the admission of the negro to social equality as their opponents could possibly be. They only advocated the clothing of the newly emancipated race with the franchise of the ballot and of his "rights before the law." To prevent alarming the fears of those whites whom they hoped to carry with them in their efforts for ascendency in the State governments, they even induced the negroes to take up the refrain, and declare they did not seek social equality with the whites. In this State, the Democrats and Conservatives charged upon the leaders of the Radicals that the tendency of their doctrine and actions was to force upon the whites a social as well as a political equality, or that, on the other hand, they were dealing disingenuously and hypocritically with the negroes, who, notwithstanding the public declarations on the subject, were looking forward to a total abrogation of all distinction between the races, and were looking to the Radical party to effect this abrogation.

The fact is, the idea of political and civil equality—the rights to the same hotels, the same Railroad cars, the same steamboats, theatres, schools, churches and other public places, carries with it the other little remnants of eating and marrying together, and makes the claim to equality, in all things, before God and man, complete.

Jim Harris, the negro Radical leader in this part of our State, declared that the negroes did not seek social equality with the whites, in doing which Jim thoroughly scalified himself; for how can he, or how dare he, get up before an audience of negroes and declare that they are equal in all things with the whites before God and the Law, and are not equal before a roast pig or dish of pork and turnips? How can he or Holden or the other leaders of the party consistently say, "you are our equals, in the jury box, at the polls, on the cars, in the church, anywhere, and everywhere, but in the social circle and at the social board.—We will meet with you, mingle with you in all these other places, but you smell so bad, or there is something about you so disagreeable in person or manners, that I cannot sit at the table with you or allow you to rest your weary limbs on my parlor sofas."

The whole drift of the radical doctrine, and treatment of the negro, is to perfect equality of races, social and otherwise, and so palpable is the fact that many, as in the case of the Mayor of Washington, alluded to, see it and acknowledge its force, and act upon it. The Radicals here feel the force of it, but they are too hypocritical to carry out the legitimate conclusion to which it leads, and hence we see them shrinking back from the association of their negro allies in public, but acting out the true doctrines of their party teachings only in mid night Leagues, and other secret associations, for the purpose of retaining their hold and influence on the gullable and simple negro for their own advantage. They would not, on the 5th, in this city, even join with the negro in the procession, because their refusal might have the tendency to check the negro's aspirations for perfect equality in all things, and to blind those whites whom they hope to induce to aid them in retaining their present hold of power, to the real tendency of the means they have adopted to secure their own advancement.

The negroes will see this in time; for the radicals will either have to kick the negro out, like Grimsom did, or accept gracefully the situation, like Bowen, and go the "whole animal," wool and odor.

There are rumors of a serious break in the Republican party. It is reported that Senators Sprague, Ross, Fowler, Henderson, and perhaps one or two others, will hereafter refuse to act with the Republican majority in the Senate; while Chief Justice Chase is now said to be in full sympathy with the Democrats.

UNIVERSITY RAILROAD.

Yates, of the Charlotte Democrat, telegraphs us to know if the decision of the Supreme Court kills all Railroad appropriations, and maintains its restriction of 66⅔ cents as a limit of taxation.

Ten days ago, the mandamus obtained by this corporation against the Treasurer to compel him to issue the bonds of the State as provided by the Legislature for the building of this road, was argued and the case closed. To-day, the case is reopened by the Court, and all Railroads chartered by the late Legislature can appear by counsel; the purpose being to make this decision govern all other cases of a like character.

What the Court will do, brother Yates, the Lord only knows. We can tell you what it ought to do. The Representatives who chartered these Roads and committed the people and property of the State to build them, will do little of the paying. They were elected by force, fraud and the sword.

Littlefield, the Editor of the Standard, received a fee, some say, of $100,000 to put one of these roads through, which called for an appropriation of $2,000,000. He is said to have spent $8,000 for whiskey, wine, segars, sugar, lemons and treating the "hands." His grog shop was kept in a room of the Capitol, convenient to the members.

To build these Roads will require a tax greater than the Constitution allows. It strikes us as the plain duty of the Court to declare the charter for these roads, one and all, unconstitutional and void "from turret to foundation stone."

DISTRESSING SALES IN ORANGE.—We heard much talk of 20,000 acres of land advertised for sale by the Sheriff of Orange, to be sold on Monday last. The Sheriff gave us the list of land to be sold. Omitting town lots we could count only 8,658 acres. The sale was not completed on Monday; one day was not sufficient to work so much ruin. The lands we are told did not average more than one dollar and thirty cents per acre, and yet some of the best lands of the county were sold. There is no chance under the Sheriff's hammer to get anything like the true value of lands.

Hester's Real Estate Agency and Lottery is the only place and way to get the real value of your lands. We hope Hester in his next grand drawing will have fewer sewing machines, and in their stead have prizes of Guano, Bonedust, Plaster Lime &c.

SUPREME COURT.—The Court met at the usual hour; all the Justices present.

The following opinions were delivered:

BY PEARSON, C. J.—State vs. Cherry, from Gaston county. Judgment reversed, and venire de novo awarded.

David Schenck, ex parte, from Lincoln county. Order reversed, procedendo to issue.

BY READE, J.—Murphy vs. Merritt, from Sampson county. Error, judgment here for plaintiff for costs.

State vs. Davis, from Chatham county.—No error, judgment affirmed.

BY RODMAN, J.—Brown vs. Commissioners of Washington, Beaufort county. Judgment reversed, venire de novo.

Meaden vs. Bannister, from Lincoln county. Judgment affirmed.

BY DICK, J.—Valentine vs. Hollamar, from Hertford county. Judgment reversed, venire de novo.

Saluns vs. Martin, from Gaston county. Judgment reversed, petition dismissed.

Justice Settle, having been absent, delivered no opinion.

Upon motion, the case of University R R Co vs. W. W. Holden, Governor, and D. A. Jenkins, Treasurer, was re-opened for argument and case set for Friday next.

DAVIDSON COLLEGE.—A correspondent of the Western Democrat, giving that paper an interesting account of the recent commencement exercises at Davidson College, speaks in the following flattering terms of the address on the occasion, of our talented and accomplished townsman, SEATON GALES, Esq.:

"The oration before the two Societies was delivered at the request of the Philantropic Society, by Major Seaton Gales, of Raleigh, N. C. As a nephew of both of the famous Editors of the world renowned National Intelligencer, Major Gales could not help promising his audience an address replete with all the marks of culture. And his audience declared, with one consent that he fulfilled his promise right honorably. His aim was to convince the heads and to assure the hearts of the young men of our country that they ought not to desert their native State to seek their fortunes amid other scenes than those that now surround them. The sons of North Carolina had showed that they were willing to die in and for their native land even when they thought that they could not live in it as they ought to live. One who had had experience in military as well as in civil forms of life, now besought those to live in their country whom Providence had spared to live for it. With much power of illustration, with great purity of diction, and with a most dignified and graceful elocution, the orator argued that no where in the Union were the highest rewards of enterprise to be found in such proximity and profusion as right here in our old North State."

During the epidemic of intermittents in the West this season, the whole immense stock of Ayer's Ague Cure became exhausted, and the producing power of his Laboratory was found inadequate to meet the demand. Many who knew its extraordinary virtues for the cure of Chills and Fever, paid exorbitant prices for it to those who were fortunate enough to have a supply on hand. Some of our neighbors paid ten dollars for a bottle, while the regular price is but one, and assure us it was on the whole the cheapest remedy they could buy, even at that figure. They praised it for two qualities; first, that it cures, and last that it leaves the health unimpaired.—Iowa Standard.

Among the recent discoveries at Herculaneum, in the excavation of the ancient city, are 14 vases of different sizes—a candelabrum, a lamp, several dishes of glass and burnt earth, the marble statuette of a fawn and and two broken tables, one of marble and the other of slate.

A man in Norwich, Ct., has demomesticated a lot of toads, which keep his garden clear of insects.

Judge Jere. S. Black will be sufficiently recovered to leave Louisville this week.

REMARKABLE CURIOSITIES.—Mrs. Helen M. Key, of Louisville, Ky., a corresponding member of the New Albany Society of Natural History, has recently presented to the Association several exceedingly interesting Indian relics, found by herself in Arkansas and Mississippi. One of these is a fine specimen of Indian pottery ware, which was taken from an excavation in a mound in Washington county, Mississippi. The mound is six or eight feet high, and covered with large specimens of trees many had an ornamental, among which are human skeletons, with bowls, vases, and cups of various shapes and sizes, made of clay and sand. The specimen presented by Mrs. Key is in the shape of a vase of rather grotesque form, and rude finish, about 6½ inches high, and 7½ wide at its greater diameter. A small cup of a funnel shape, about three inches high, of the same kind of pottery, was found by Mrs. Key in Arkansas, and accompanies the vase above mentioned.—The other specimen is a brick about 4½ inches long, 3½ inches wide, and 1½ inch thick, which was taken by Mrs. Key from a pavement, found two feet below the surface of the earth, in Washington county, Mississippi. The pavement was about 18 feet wide and 20 feet long, composed of curved or fluted brick, of different colors, some being black, some gray, while others were red, and all were as hard as limestone.

LIFE OF A PRINTER.—The following strange, eventful record of a journeyman printer's life is taken from an exchange, which paper asserts it correct to the letter. It develops what a man can do if he likes, and what queer, enterprising, and unselfish fellows, the majority of printers are:

"The life of a printer is, to say the least, one of variety. I left home at the age of nine, and was apprenticed to the printing business at thirteen; since then I have visited Europe, been in England, Ireland, Scotland, Wales and France, in Canada, Nova Scotia, Labrador, South America, West Indies, and all the Atlantic States of the Union, from Maine to Louisiana—have lived in twenty-seven cities and towns of the United States. I have been a sailor in the merchant service, and have sailed in all the manner of crafts—ship, barque, brig, schooner, sloop and steamer—in the regular army as a private soldier, deserted, and got shot in the leg. I have studied two years for the ministry, one year for an M. D., traveled through all the New England States, New York, New Jersey, Pennsylvania and Virginia, as a journeyman printer, generally with little else than a brass rule in my pocket. I have been the publisher of three papers—one in Boston, one in Roxbury, Mass., one in Maine. At one time I had $7,550 in my pocket of my own, I have been married twice, and am now nearly twenty-six years old!! I have been a temperance lecturer, and proprietor of a temperance theatre."

The disease, known to the ancients as leprosy, is making sad havoc among the inhabitants of the Sandwich Islands. This scourge attacks old, middle aged and young of both sexes. In one group may be seen an aged woman, stalwart man in the prime of life, the girl in her teens, the schoolboy and child of four years of age, all bearing the distinctive and never to be forgotten marks of leprosy. The ears of one are swollen, another's hands are deformed, the fingers being drawn into the palms of the hands and one or more joints gone from each finger, while another's face is so swollen and disfigured that his own friends find it hard to recognize him. There is no cure for his horrible affliction. Its victims are all sent to an island devoted entirely to their occupation, and are compelled to remain there for life.

The Portland Mirror has heard of a parish in Massachusetts where "fine music" was wanted, and the discussion of the subject was compromised by allowing each person to subscribe as he preferred for the support of the preaching or of the music.—After the society had been canvassed, it was found that $1,700 was subscribed for singing, and $1,800 for preaching! Some signed $25, $50, and $100 "for singing—not a cent for preaching!" Accordingly a choir was hired to come out from the city every Saturday afternoon in the Orthodox Congregational Church on Sunday. Some of those who were active in this arrangement, not having contributed to this musical entertainment, attended themselves from Church till the close of the introductory exhibition.

A DISLOYAL OLD NIGGER.—A lady who overheard the conversation, relates to us the following incident:

Our informant's cook has a son, a small boy, whom she sent to pick berries. The weather was very warm, but the boy buttoned himself up closely in the remnant of a Yankee overcoat. When he returned his mother observed it and accosted him—

"What you ware dat thick coat for, sich a hot day as dis?"

"'Cause, mammy," replied the loyal boy, 'de Yankees does it."

"You're a little fool," said the indignant old mammy, "do you s'pose de Yankees got as much sense as we 'Mericans has?"—Montgomery (Ala.) Mail.

The Massachusetts legislature, this year, chartered twelve new Railroad Companies. Their names and capital are as follows:—Bedford, $150,000; Taunton and Providence, $600,000; New Bedford and Taunton, $350,000; Taunton and Attleboro', $200,000; Hopkinton Branch, $200,000; Monadnock, $50,000; Athol and Enfield, $300,000; Amesbury, $150,000; Salisbury, $100,000; Essex Branch, $200,000; Massachusetts Central, $3,000,000; with leave to increase to double that amount; Holyoke and Westfield, $200,000 to $350,000.

A gentleman from Leicester, England, who arrived in Minneapolis, Minnesota, recently, only sixteen days from Liverpool by way of Boston, has bought five thousand acres of land in Kandiyohi, where he will settle. He passed through Canada West, but was not favorably impressed with its appearance.

A negro Alderman was present at the Gettysburg celebration, and was refused admission to the hotel. Having, during last winter, waited on a distinguished congressman who was in Gettysburg at the time, he applied to him to use his influence in his behalf with the hotel man. The representative declined to interfere, and the darky stayed out in the cold. The Mayor of Washington, who was present, did his best for the negro, but he failed to stir the landlord.

A "director's car" has been recently put on the Hartford and New Haven road, which is quite a curiosity in its way. The machinery which propels it is entirely concealed from view, and as it moves along the rails is an object of great curiosity. It is about a quarter the length of an ordinary passenger car, has four wheels like a coach, and the inside is elegantly furnished.

The King of Prussia has presented to the Viceroy of Egypt a splendid porcelain vase, six feet in height, from the Berlin manufactory. The ground color is blue and the handles bronze, the whole being richly gilt and decorated. The base is ornamented by a picture after Steinbruck's design of "The Elves," from one of Tieck's fairy tales.

Great News From Virginia.

Read the Sentinel's special telegram in another column. Virginia is now what North Carolina might have been, and what North Carolina must be, after one more chance.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.—Davidson College commences its 33rd Collegiate year on September 2d.

North Carolina College at Mount Pleasant, N. C., begins its session August 2d.

University of North Carolina commences its Fall session on the 18th of August next.

Kittrell's Springs Female College opens to day.

All of the above Institutions offer inducements. Read their advertisements.

40 bushels of Black Peas at W. C. Stronach's.

Proposals for furnishing lumber for Stalls, for inclosing Track, &c, at the Fair Grounds will be recived for one week at the office of the N. C. Agricultural Society. Address J. B. Smith, Secretary.

GOVERNOR WORTH.—Gov. Worth and lady arrived this morning on the train from the West. The Governor and Mrs. Worth have been spending sometime among their friends and relations in Randolph. We regret to say that the Governor's health is anything but good. He is looking feeble and much reduced. He sets out soon for the Virginia Springs. We hope its waters may restore him to health.

QUERIES.—We respectfully propound the following queries:

Is Maj. Martin Chief of Police for the City of Raleigh?

If so, does it fall within his province to overlook the City market and enforce the City ordinances relative thereto?

If so, does he do it?

Does the Chief of Police keep a wagon and team and do the City hauling?

If so, does he make from five to eight dollars a day by it?

If so, is not this much higher than the ordinary price of two-horse wagons?

Does an ordinance of the city forbid the Chief of Police carrying on a retail grocery business?

If so, has the Major an interest in the concern ostensibly carried on by the negro, Jack Pool?

If so, are the city employees in subordinate positions, indirectly forced to buy their supplies there?

If so, are they required to pay from ten to twenty per cent higher for groceries than the same can be bought for at other shops?

If so, is this right and lawful?

BUILDINGS.—Our City presents at this time a brisk and lively appearance in the housebuilding line.

The hands are busy making arrangements to lay the foundation of the new Market House, and the laying of the brick will be commenced, we presume, at an early day. This building, if completed according to programme, will be an ornament to the part of the City in which it is located.

This morning the first bricks were laid on the wall of the large new store to be erected at corner of Fayetteville and Martin streets, for B. P. Williamson, Esq. This will be a large building, four stories high, and when finished, one of the finest stores in the City.

The first brick were laid this morning, also, on the large new store of Messrs. Upchurch & Dodd, on the site of the old Planters Hotel. This building is to be 125 feet long and 30 feet front on Wilmington street, and four stories high, and finished off with all the modern conveniences.

In connection with this, and run up along side of it, Col. Bunting, Superior Court Clerk of Wake, will erect a large store, 24 feet front on Wilmington Street and running back 80 feet, of the same height of that of Messrs. U. & D's.

The walls of the Banking House of the State National Bank are completed and the inside work and front are being put up, under the supervision of Thos. Briggs, Esq., the architect.

Besides these, many smaller buildings are going up, and others being repaired in various parts of the city. The spirit of improvement was never more rife in Raleigh than at the present time.

PERSONAL.—We learn that the Hon. F. A. Rollins, late Commissioner of Internal Revenue, is now acting as President of the National Life Insurance Company of the United States of America, at the Campany's Branch Office, in Philadelphia, during the temporary absence in Europe, of the President, C. H. Clark, Esq. Mr. Rollins has been an active member of the Board of Directors of this Company since its organization, and in giving to its interest the benefit of his personal co-operation, and the advantages of his enlarged experience and extensive acquaintance, we confidently look for a renewed impetus to be given to the already unprecedented progress of this great National Institution.

See advertisement of P. F. Pescud, General Agent.

STATE NEWS.

A SINGULAR DEATH.—On last Wednesday evening the mother of J. W. Stephens—the Senator from Caswell, and with whom the old lady resided in Yanceyville—was found by some children lying dead on the floor by the side of the bed in her room. It appears that she had fallen out of the bed and that her throat struck an earthen vessel which broke in two, and that the rough edge of the broken vessel had very singularly cut her throat—perhaps severing the jugular vein. She was found weltering in blood, and upon the children giving the alarm a negro woman was the first to hasten to the scene of death, and seizing the fragments of the broken vessel cast them out of a window. Several physicians, we learn, examined the wound which disclosed small particles of the fatal vessel adhering, and that there was a difference of opinion among the physicians as to the modus operandi of the throat cutting—some conceiving it possible for it to have been cut by the vessel, and others leaning to the opinion that it was done by a hatchet or a sharp-edged tool. We give the statement as we receive it from rumor. Mr. Stephens, we learn, was not a home at the time. It was truly a singular casualty, if casualty it may be called.—Hillsboro Recorder.

THE SWISS EMIGRANTS—MARRIAGE AT THE DEPOT ON ARRIVAL.—Some sixty Swiss emigrants, brought over through the Agency of the Eastern North Carolina Immigration Association, arrived at Goldsboro, on Friday last, and were distributed principally to the counties of Wilson, Edgecombe and Pitt, Wilson receiving about half the lot. Those for this county arrived here on Saturday, and were distributed between Messrs. Wm. Barnes, Jr., Wm. Woodard, Wm. C. Ellis, and Sam. B. Farmer.

We learn, that soon after their arrival here on Saturday, the rites of matrimony were solemnized between three couples, by a Justice of the Peace; and as the parties were unable to speak English, it was only by the intercession of an interpreter that they were declared "man and wife." The ceremony was performed at Lutz's Hotel, near the depot, in the presence of quite a large crowd. May prosperity be the reward of their coming to our country, and happiness follow their new relation in life.—Wilson Plaindealer.

ELECTION OF PROFESSOR.—The Rev. Geo T. Wilmer, of North Carolina, was on Saturday elected professor of Belles Letters and Moral Science in William and Mary College. Mr. Wilmer is a brother of Bishop Wilmer, of Alabama, and is a gentleman of fine attainments. The appointment is a most excellent one.—Richmond Examiner.

THE following telegraphic dispatch from Wilmington, clipped from the Richmond Dispatch, but which was not sent to this city, will explain a dispatch in our telegraphic column, to-day, in regard to the death of young Henry Gilliam:

EXPLOSION—LOSS OF LIFE.—Wilmington, July 5th.—The steam sloop Brandt, with a large party of excursionists aboard, on returning to the city, this evening, had a piece blown from her boiler at a point six miles below the city. The utmost consternation prevailed. Wm. R. Meares, son of Col. Thomas D. Meares, Charles R. Avery and E. H. Ellers, jumped overboard. Avery, after sinking twice, and Ellers, were rescued by a colored man in a life boat from the steamer Waccamaw. Meares, after swimming one thousand yards, was drowned. Henry Gilliam was so badly scalded that his life is despaired of. Neill McLaurin, son of Joseph McLaurin, is painfully but not dangerously hurt. There are a large number of slight casualties. The sad affair plunged the community in the deepest grief.

THE KETCHUM CASE.—Edward B. Ketchum, the forger, who a few days since was brought from Sing Sing to New York city on a writ of habeas corpus, and his discharge demanded on the ground of alleged informalities in the sentence, has been remanded to prison by Judge Bernard, and the writ dismissed, for the reason that the prisoner himself was opposed to the proceeding, and believed his punishment just and merited, and that he has no wish to cheat justice by escaping through a technical defect. He preferred to pay the full penalty of his crime, already nearly expiated, unless his prison door be unlocked through executive clemency. The effort for release had been made by the friends of the prisoner, and the question was whether a pure, naked conviction, without complaint or indictment, is sufficient to send a man to State prison, and keep him there for a term of years. The prisoner, it will be remembered, was sentenced by Recorder (now Governor) Hoffman, on the 30th of December, 1865, for the term of four years and six months, he having pleaded guilty to one indictment. Several other indictments were found by the Grand Jury, and, of course, are still hanging over him.

A WHOLE FAMILY POISONED BY A GIRL.—Anna J. Hawkins, aged seventeen years, was arrested in Philadelphia on Friday evening, on the charge of poisoning entire family, composed of seven persons, whose names are Mrs. Margaret J. and Miss Alice, and Mr. John M. Hoff and Mary E. Elizabeth, Maggie, and Nathan F. Pancoast. Anna lives with the family as a domestic. About a week ago they were all except Anna, taken suddenly ill, and from the symptoms the physician pronounced that they had been poisoned. It was then concluded that the sickness had been caused by some bread of which the inmates had partaken. An examination of that article disclosed the presence of arsenic. It was at first supposed that the flour from which the bread was made had contained the poison, but the movements of Anna being suspicious, she was questioned, and finally admitted that she had poisoned the bread sponge with some arsenic, which she had found in a clock; and which had been used by Mrs. Hoff in destroying rats and mice. Anna was taken into custody. On being questioned as to what her object was, Anna states that somebody had been telling stories about her to Mrs. Hoff, who had threatened to keep her in the house for one month, and that she determined to make them sick, but that she had no intention of killing any one.

FLORIDA STATE FINANCES.—Official information from Florida regarding the condition of the State finances has been received, contradicting the statements recently published that the State is bankrupt. The following extract from a private letter on the subject confirms the contradiction: "In the first place the Gleason-Osborn dynasty, whatever that was, never issued any bonds, and consequently there was no interest on them to repudiate; in the second place the the State Treasury, so far from being bankrupt is in a better condition than it has been for years, and is promptly paying the interest on all State bonds. The interest on the State bonds falling due on the 1st ult. is now being paid in New York by the financial agents of the State."

A pharmaceutical Congress, to which all civilized nations are invited to send representatives, is to take place at Vienna in September.

A case of strange cruelty is related on the part of a mother, at Leoading, in Austria. Wishing to get rid of her child, scarcely five months old, she placed it close to a beehive. The poor infant had already been stung severely, when a gendarme who was passing perceived it and carried it away. The woman was soon after arrested.

The principality of Litchenstein occupies a curious position. Ayer's Sarsaparilla,

FOR PURIFYING THE BLOOD.

The reputation this excellent medicine enjoys, is derived from its cures, many of which are of a truly marvelous character. Inveterate cases of scrofula, where the system seemed utterly given up to corruption, have yielded to the influence of this compound of anti-strumous virtues. Disorders of a scrofulous type, and affections which are merely aggravated by the presence of scrofulous matter, have been radically cured in such numerous instances, in every settlement in the country, that the public do not need to be informed here that it is in most cases a specific and absolute remedy.

Scrofula is poison in one of the most destructive forms. Often, this unseen and unfelt tenant of the organism undermines the constitution, and invites the attack of enfeebling or fatal diseases, without exciting a suspicion of its presence. Again, it seems to lie dormant in the system for years, and then, on some favorable occasion, rapidly develops into one or other of its hideous forms, either on the surface or among the vitals. In the latter, tubercles may be suddenly deposited in the lungs or heart, or tumors formed in the liver. All such cases makes the occasional use of the Sarsaparilla as a preventive, advisable.

It is a mistake to suppose that so long as no eruptions or humors appear, there must be no scrofulous taint. These forms of derangement may never occur, and yet the vital forces of the body be so reduced by its subtle agency, as materially to impair the health and shorten the duration of life. It is a common error, also, that scrofula is strictly hereditary. It does, indeed, descend from parent to child, but is also engendered in persons born of pure blood. Low living, indigestion, foul air, licentious habits, unclean liness, and the depressing vices generally, produce it. Weakly constitutions, where not fortified by the most constant and judicious care, are peculiarly liable to it. Yet the robust, also, whose turbid blood swells the veins with an apparently exuberant vitality, are often contaminated, and on the road to its consequences. Indeed, no class or condition can depend on immunity from it, nor feel insensible to the importance of an effectual remedy.

In St. Anthony's Fire, Rose or Erysipelas, Tetter, Salt Rheum, Scald Head, Ringworm, Sore Eyes and Ears, and other equally severe or visible forms of the diseases caused primarily by the scrofulous infection, the Sarsaparilla is so efficient as to be indispensable. And in the more concealed forms, as in Dyspepsia, Dropsy, Heart Disease, Fits, Epilepsy, Neuralgia, and other affections of the muscular and nervous systems, the Sarsaparilla, through its purifying power, removes the cause of the disorder and produces astonishing cures.

The sarsaparilla root of the tropics does not by itself achieve these results. It is aided by the extracts combined with it, of still greater power. So potent in this union of healing virtues, Syphilis or Venereal and Mercurial Diseases are cured by it, though a long time is required for subduing those obstinate maladies by any medicine. Leucorrhœa or Whites, Uterine Ulcerations, and Female Diseases in general, are commonly soon relieved and ultimately cured by the fortifying and purifying effect of our Sarsaparilla. Rheumatism and Gout, often dependent on the accumulations of extraneous matters in the blood, have their remedy in this medicine. For Liver Complaint, torpidity, inflammation, abscess, etc., caused by rankling poisons in the blood, we unhesitatingly recommend the *Sars

BEAUTIFUL STANZAS.

There is no heart but hath its inner anguish,
There is no eye but hath with tears been wet,
There is no voice but hath been heard to languish
O'er hours of darkness it can't ne'er forget,

There is no cheek however bright its roses,
But perished buds beneath its hues are hid;
No eye in its dewy light reposes,
But broken star-beams tremble 'neath its lid.

There is no lip, how'er with laughter ringing,
However light and gay its words may be,
But it hath trembled at some dark upspringing
Of stern affection and deep misery.

We are all brothers in this land of dreaming,
Yet hand meets hand, and eye to eye replies;
Nor deem we that beneath a frow all beaming
The flower of life in broken beauty lies,

Oh! blessed light that gilds our height of sorrow;
Oh! balm of Gilead, for our healing 'ound;
We know that peace will come with thee to-morrow,
And that affections spring not from the ground.

The Age of Progress.

We publish to-day, the first scheme in the sale of Real and Personal Estate ever Company chartered by the last Legislature, with a capital of one hundred and thirty thousand dollars, and with power to increase that amount to five hundred thousand dollars. An examination of the charter satisfies us that the Company is pursuing a legitimate business; they are empowered to "dispose of Real and Personal Estate in any mode or form they may deem best," and "all laws, or clauses of laws, coming in conflict with said charter are hereby repealed." This is plain and unmistakable English, and we have no doubt the transactions of the Company will prove beneficial to the property holders of North Carolina. For example: Mr. A. owns a piece of real estate which he wishes to dispose of. He throws it upon the market, and fails to get a bid that would warrant him in making a deed. He then places it in the hands of the North Carolina Real and Personal Estate Agency, at a fair valuation, and the property is sold by chance—the owner gets his price—the Company a fair and reasonable compensation for selling—and some poor man, for two dollars comes in possession of a homestead which, under any other circumstances, he would not have owned.

In fact, we do not view the Company as a Lottery—it is what it purports to be, a simple Agency for the sale of property, for its true value, which, otherwise would be sacrificed

We refer our readers to the advertisement—the splendid real estate offered, and the other rich prizes, amounting in all to THREE THOUSAND AND ONE—and the reader will perceive by the simple rule of division, that there is one prize to every twenty-four tickets.

The General Agent of the Company has given us a call, and assures us, that the success of the Company is no longer a problem. In thirty-five counties through which he has just traveled, he represents the people as being enthusiastic in favor of it—both as to investing, and the placing of property in the hands of the Company for sale. He represents that already, before the first grand drawing has taken place, applications to sell, amounting to half a million dollars, are on file in the Secretary's office.

We learn from the Raleigh papers, that the explanatory drawing which took place in the city of Raleigh, on Saturday last, passed off to the decided satisfaction of a large audience assembled in Tucker Hall to witness it.—Wil. Post.

One three cent stamp must accompany every order. All tickets will have the seal of the Company and signature of the Secretary.

☞ We refer to any Merchant, Banker, or other gentleman of standing in the city of Raleigh. For further description and particulars, address
